2. 13th SAARCLAW Conference and 10th SAARC Chief Justices’ Conference:

SAARCLAW Nepal Chapter hosted a well-organized, well attended and a successful 13th SAARCLAW and 10th SAARC Chief Justices' conference. The conference was inaugurated by the Hon’ble President and Prime Minister of Nepal:

SAARCLAW is striving to bring the Legal Fraternity in South Asia together. The member countries of SAARC and its legal community have often felt the need to be closer and work together for better life and effective understanding through shared learning in the field of law.
reforms, enforcement, and justice administration, good governance with special advantages for regional cooperation, development and growth. There is a growing need amongst the member countries to focus on regional infrastructure as a means to facilitate meaningful connectivity for regional trade and free flow of ideas, goods, services, technology and resources as lack of connectivity will hinder regional development in all dimensions. The Legal Community of SAARC region has explored the possibility of enhancing connectivity in SAARC through law, justice, good governance and development. SAARCLAW Conference and Chief Justices Conference is one of the major steps of SAARCLAW to turn the vision and mission of the organization into reality. SAARCLAW organized 13th SAARCLAW Conference and 10th Chief Justices Conference on the 5th-6th March 2016 at Hyatt Regency, Kathmandu, Nepal. The conference was inspired by the theme of SAARC Conference of head of the states and government that was held in February, 2015 at Kathmandu. The theme of the conference was “Connecting SAARC through Law, Justice, Good Governance and Development”. The conference was attended by the Chief Justices or its representatives from and the legal fraternity from South Asia. Kathmandu Declaration has been adopted by the Chief Justices or its representatives in 10th Chief Justices' Conference held in Kathmandu, Nepal, 5-6 March 2016. (Please refer to Appendix - 1)

APPENDIX - 1

Kathmandu Declaration - Adopted by the 10th Chief Justices' Conference held in Kathmandu, Nepal, 5-6 March 2016

Whereas, independence of judiciary is the foundation of democracy, rule of law, human rights and social justice; and

Whereas, the judiciary, as the custodian of the constitution, has a prominent role to play in promoting and nurturing its values; and

Whereas, there is a need to promote constitutional culture through collective consciousness among the SAARC nations; and

Whereas, judicial reform is a multi-dimensional and continuous process, which requires a holistic approach; and

Whereas, cooperation between the judiciaries in the Region, through the sharing of judgments on human rights, public interest litigation, environmental and commercial cases, also facilitates access to justice for all; and

Whereas, the establishment of a SAARCLAW arbitration center in the Region, would further facilitate economic and social development and justice;

Now, therefore, the 10th Chief Justices' Conference, attended by Hon'ble Chief Justice of Bangladesh Mr. Surendra Kumar Sinha, Hon'ble Chief Justice of Bhutan Mr. Tshering Wangchuk, Hon'ble Chief Justice of India Mr. T. Sripavan,

Do hereby resolve and declare the following through the Kathmandu Declaration to:

1. Take initiatives to disseminate judgments relating to human rights, public interest litigation, environmental and commercial law through the website of the SAARCLAW, along with an alert system while uploading new judgments.

2. Publish periodic SAARC Law Reports containing landmark judgments and decisions of the apex courts of the SAARC countries.

3. Foster regional cooperation for the establishment of a SAARCLAW Arbitration Centre in Kathmandu, Nepal.

4. Make further use of national judicial academies for mutual exchange of knowledge, skills and experiences of judges, judicial officials and law practitioners in the Region, through training and exchange of visits.

5. Share the best practices in court management among the judiciaries in the Region.
6. Further collaborate with the relevant stakeholders including civil society in order to enhance access to justice for all.

7. Urge the respective governments to provide adequate resources to the judiciary for strengthening its institutional capacity.

And, we do hereby further resolve to forward this Declaration to the SAARC Law for such action as may be considered necessary.

(Mr. Surendra Kumar Sinha)
